Error Spotting

Question 1: Identify the segment containing the error: 'The committee / was divided / in their opinion / regarding the new policy.'

- A) regarding the new policy

- B) The committee

- C) was divided

- D) in their opinion

  (Correct Answer: C - It should be "were divided" because the pronoun "their" indicates the committee is acting as individuals, requiring a plural verb.)

Question 2: Identify the grammatical error: 'He, who was selected for the prestigious award, have been called for an interview tomorrow.'

- A) have been called

- B) for an interview tomorrow

- C) He, who was selected

- D) for the prestigious award

  (Correct Answer: A - The subject "He" is singular, so the verb should be "has been called".)

- A) uses too economic, social and political relationships as well
- B) No improvement
- C) also uses economic, social and political relationships
- D) too uses economic, social and political relationships also

(Correct Answer: C - Using both "too" and "as well" in the same sentence makes it redundant. "Also uses" is the most concise and correct phrasing.)

Question 3: Choose the best replacement for the phrase 'is definitely to be': 'Fear of any particular enemy is definitely to be an instinctive quality, though it is strengthened by experience.'

- A) is definitely
- B) definitely being
- C) No improvement
- D) is definite to be

(Correct Answer: A - The infinitive "to be" is unnecessary here. "Is definitely an instinctive quality" flows correctly.)
